

Sinclair Broadcasting's move to compel affiliate stations to air an anti-Kerry propaganda film just before the election is outrageous and an indication of why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Indeed, the license renewal process should be more rigorous and more cognizant of the cornerstone/watch dog role media plays in a democracy, rather than simply pandering to corporate interests. Thank you.